

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ELECTIONS

SATURDAY 14 SEPTEMBER 2024

Local Government elections will be held on Saturday 14 September across NSW.

Voting is compulsory and fines apply if you do not vote.

As an elector your voting options are as follows:

- Apply for Postal Vote (subject to eligibility criteria)
- Early Vote at Pre-Poll location (subject to eligibility criteria)
- Vote on Election Day (Saturday 14 September 2024).

Postal Vote

If you are unable to vote on Election Day, you can vote early by applying for a postal vote from Tuesday 6 August until 5pm Monday 9 September 2024.

Early Vote

You can vote before Election Day (called pre-poll voting) by attending any of the pre-poll locations listed below from Saturday 7 September to Friday 13 September. Electors from both Wards can vote at any of these locations (dual ward polling place).

Election Day

On Election Day you can vote at one of the allocated polling places within your Ward – either the Fairfield/Cabravale or Parks Wards (see the Election Ward Map below).

Where to Vote

To find where to vote:

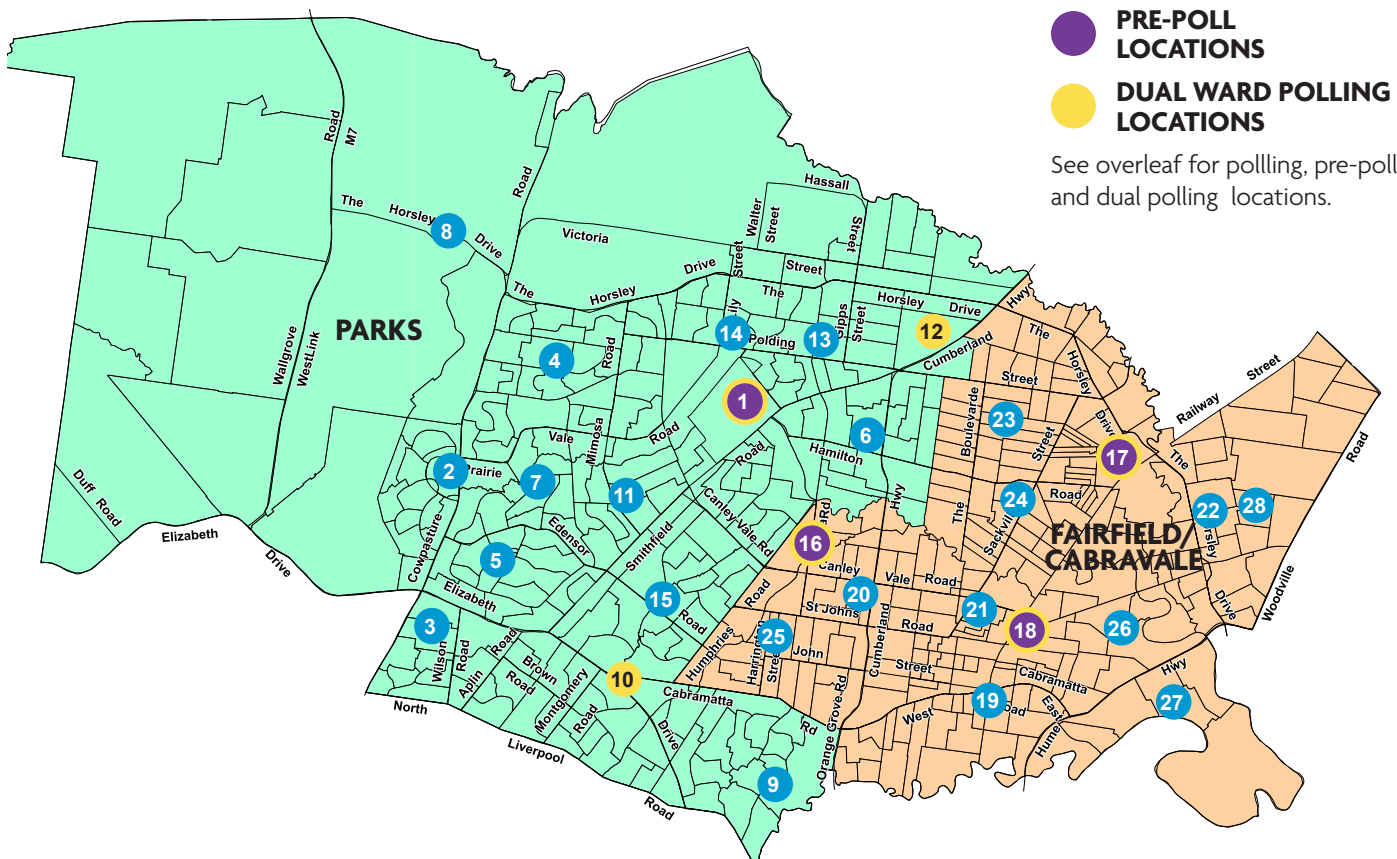

- Find your enrolment address on the Election Ward Map
- Note the colour shading shown for your location (green or orange). If you are in the green area, you are in the Parks Ward. If you are in the orange area, you are in the Fairfield/Cabravale Ward.
- The number on the map is the polling location closest to you. You can vote at any of the locations in your Ward (green or orange) or at a dual ward polling place (yellow).
- Go to the table containing the list of polling places for your Ward

For example, if you live in the green shaded area, you can vote at a polling place shown in green under the Parks Ward in the table. There are also some polling places labelled 'Dual' as shown in the yellow table.
